

Associate Attorney
Antitrust Litigation
Philadelphia, PA

WHY THIS OPPORTUNITY IS DIFFERENT

Most antitrust litigation firms ask you to defend the conduct that harms markets. At Berger Montague, you do the opposite at the highest level of the plaintiffs' bar.

Our Antitrust Department is one of the most respected plaintiff-side practices in the country, with a principal role in some of the largest antitrust class actions in U.S. history, including a $5.6 billion settlement in the Payment Card Interchange Fee litigation, a $375 million settlement for UFC fighters, and a $750 million settlement in In re Namenda. Our docket spans price-fixing, wage suppression, monopolization, and market allocation cases across pharmaceuticals, technology, professional sports, and more. Federal courts routinely appoint us to leadership roles, and we have been ranked #1 in antitrust class action recoveries two years running.

This position is for an associate who wants to be in court, not doing document review. This position is for people who want their names on briefs that matter, not just their time entries.

This is a rare opportunity to practice sophisticated civil litigation at scale while taking on the companies and cartels that rig markets against consumers, workers, and businesses that play by the rules.
