

Trial Attorney

Philadelphia, Washington, DC, Minneapolis, Chicago, San Francisco, San Diego
Remote Considered

WHY THIS OPPORTUNITY IS DIFFERENT

Most plaintiff-side firms talk about going to trial. At Berger Montague, we actually do it — at the highest level of the plaintiffs' bar.

We have a busy national practice spanning antitrust, securities, consumer, employment, environmental, and civil rights litigation. We are looking to add a trial attorney with significant trial experience and the technical knowledge to prepare for and lead trials in complex class action matters. Our cases are large-scale, our opponents are sophisticated, and our outcomes change lives.

This is a position for someone who is ready to be in the courtroom — not on the sidelines. You will lead or substantially assist trial teams, working alongside some of the most experienced class action litigators in the country.

This is a rare opportunity to apply deep trial skills at scale on matters that matter — fighting for individuals and classes whose outcomes depend on what happens in the courtroom.

ABOUT BERGER MONTAGUE

Berger Montague PC pioneered the use of class actions in American civil litigation. Founded in Philadelphia in 1970, the Firm has spent more than five decades at the vanguard of plaintiff-side litigation, recovering more than $55 billion for clients across antitrust, consumer, employment, securities, civil rights, and more.

Our 100+ attorneys take on high stakes matters where the legal issues are hard, and the outcomes change lives. Associates are given genuine responsibility from day one because our cases demand it.

The firm is recognized by Chambers USA, The Legal 500, and Law360 as a national leader in class action litigation.
